

Congresswoman Lucille Roybal-Allard invites you to attend her annual U.S. Service Academies Workshop

If you are interested in receiving a prestigious university degree and becoming a military officer, consider attending a United States Service Academy.

At this free informational workshop, academy representatives and current students will be available to answer questions about eligibility requirements, cadet life, academics, athletics, and career opportunities after graduation.

Event is open to students, parents, and the public.

Saturday, Sept. 17, 2016

9:00 AM - 10:30 AM

Registration opens at 8:30 AM

Downey City Library
11121 Brookshire Ave.
Downey, CA 90241

Attendees will learn about our nation's five service academies and how to obtain a Congressional nomination.

For more information contact:
Kim Tachiki-Chin at (323) 721-8790 or kimberlee.tachiki@mail.house.gov
(On subject line, write: Service Academy Workshop)

